Relationships

National Reconciliation Week event, 2 June

We were joined by Seona James from Indigenous Cultural Connections, with the Acknowledgement of Country by our Board member, Vicky Peters.

Seona's address focused on the theme for National Reconciliation Week and the positive role that BSV can play in reconciliation.

You can also view RAP updates and our ongoing commitment to reconciliation on the website.

Relationships and opportunities

Anti-discrimination provisions and recruitment retention and professional development

Indigenous Cultural Connections are undertaking review a review of our anti-discrimination provisions and recruitment, retention and professional development strategies.

Indigenous Data Sovereignty and Governance

VACCHO are leading a Victorian Department of Health funded project to implement the recommendations from the University of Tasmania (UTAS) 2024 report on Indigenous Data Sovereignty (IDSov) and Indigenous Data Governance (IDGov) in Cancer Screening.

As part of the Victoria Cancer Screening Partnership, BSV attended a two day workshop on IDSov and IDGov facilitated by UTAS and/or Macquarie University inclusive of members of the Maiaṃ nayri Wingara Collective.
